Bennett named PERS Employee of the Quarter

Queen Bennett has been named the Public Employees' Retirement System (PERS) Employee of the Quarter by the PERS Board of Trustees for the second quarter of fiscal year 2018, which runs from October through December.

An employee of PERS since March 2000, Bennett, of Madison, works as a benefit analyst in the PERS Call Center. She was recognized for her positive and helpful attitude toward callers and for treating customers with dignity, respect, and compassion.

Bennett earned both a bachelor's of finance and a master's in educational administration from Jackson State University. She is currently working to earn her Certified Public Manager license.
