

Understanding your IRS Form 1099-R

Every January, PERS mails Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Form 1099-R to each retiree who received benefits the previous calendar year. To help retirees gain a better understanding of IRS Form 1099-R, important sections of the 2022 version of this form have been highlighted and explained in the sample form below.

IRS Form 1099-R provides information on benefits paid and amounts withheld for federal income tax.

A copy of the form should be included with federal income tax filings if any federal tax is withheld. PERS will report the same information to the IRS for each retiree who is sent a form.

The state of Mississippi does not tax retirement income; however, other states may tax retirement income. Retirees living in states where this income is taxed should file the appropriate 1099-R copy with state income tax returns.

Gross distribution 1

This is the total amount paid by PERS during 2022, including the Cost-of-Living-Adjustment (COLA) check, if applicable.

Taxable amount 2a

This is the portion of the gross distribution amount considered taxable income and will always be equal to or less than the amount shown in Box 1.

Federal income tax withheld 4

This is the total federal withholding for the year, including any amount withheld from COLA benefits.

Employee contributions/Designated Roth contributions or insurance premiums 5

For PERS retirees, Box 5 does not relate to Roth contributions or insurance premiums. The amount printed is the difference in Box 1 and Box 2a and represents the after-tax contributions (pre-July 1, 1982) recovered tax free during the applicable calendar year and is not subject to tax.

Payer's Federal Identification Number Payer's ID

The number specific to each retirement plan PERS administers. The complete nine-digit number for each plan is listed below and should be used when filing taxes.

PERS 64-6001557

To help you prepare your taxes, this box provides the amount withheld for payment of group health insurance premiums (HLTH). This information is not provided to the IRS. When itemizing deductions, use this figure for Schedule A (not the figure in Box 5).
