Hudson named PERS senior deputy administrator, Office of Administrative Services

Terri Hudson, of Madison, has been named senior deputy administrator for the Office of Administrative Services for the Public Employees' Retirement System of Mississippi (PERS).

A certified public accountant and a certified internal auditor, Hudson earned her bachelor's of business administration with a degree in accounting and Masters of Accountancy from the University of Mississippi. She previously served as PERS internal auditor; as the vice president of Institutional Planning and Assessment at Millsaps College; as special assistant to the executive director, as deputy director and as chief financial officer at the Mississippi Development Authority; and as chief financial officer at SkyTel, Inc.

"With a distinguished career that has included vast experience in financial and administrative positions, I am confident Ms. Hudson will serve the people of Mississippi and the members of PERS well in her new role at the agency," said PERS Executive Director Ray Higgins.

As senior deputy administrator for the Office of Administrative Services, Hudson will be responsible for planning and directing the activities of various departments within the Office of Administrative Services, which includes Management Information Systems, Accounting, Human Resources, and Facilities Management. Additionally, Hudson will serve in partnership with the PERS executive team as a key advisor to the executive director in the areas of strategic planning and process improvement initiatives.
